YBS- Withdrawals and Refund Policy Summer Residential

If an unfortunate event were to occur, refunds will only be issued if adequate notice is served as outlined below and in accordance with the levels shown.

Days before the date of the start of the Summer course that notice of cancellation is received	Refund
30 days or more	90% refund of the fees paid, excluding the non-refundable deposit payment
15-29	50% refund of the fees paid, excluding the non-refundable deposit payment
Less than 15 or during any course:	We regret that no refund can be made

Fees does not include the non- refundable deposit payment

The refund levels set out above apply to all withdrawals, whatever the reason, including, but not limited to, illness or injury.

Instalment Payment Plan
Where a participant on the Instalment Payment Plan is withdrawn by a parent / guardian, the parent / guardian shall send a written notice to YBS, informing YBS of the withdrawal (a "Withdrawal Notice"). Any refund will be calculated on the fees due and / or paid as at the date the Withdrawal Notice is received by YBS, including any instalments that have fallen due and remain unpaid, in accordance with the refund levels set out above. Any outstanding sums will be deducted from the refund before it is issued. Where the outstanding sums exceed the refund due, the remaining balance is payable to YBS within 14 days of the date the Withdrawal Notie is received by YBS.

Withdrawal Notice
A Withdrawal Notice must be sent by email to info@ybss.co.uk, after which an acknowledgement will be issued. Yorkshire Ballet Seminars takes no responsibility for non- receipt of email.
In the event that a student is removed or asked to leave the during the course, no refund will be given.

Insurance
Participants may wish to consider taking out insurance against withdrawal for reasons that might prevent them from attending or completing the course.
